DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

Invention I. Claims 1-16, 30-33, and 34-38 are drawn to “a method for processing a financial instrument via receiving images”, classified in class 705, subclass 39.

Invention II. Claims 17- 23 are drawn to “ generating and transmitting image of financial instrument for recovery of funds for compensation, classified in class 705, subclass 39.

Invention III. Claims 24-29, are drawn to “a method of processing a financial instrument via receiving a reference” of the location for storing image, classified in class 705, subclass 39.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and II are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct if they do not overlap in scope and are not obvious variants, and if it is shown that at least one subcombination is separately usable. In the instant case, inventions I & II have separate utility such as invention I requires receiving an image for crediting funds to the presenter where as Invention II requires generating and transmitting image for recovering of funds. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

3. Inventions III and I are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct if they do not overlap in scope and are not obvious variants, and if it is shown that at least one subcombination is separately usable. In the instant case, inventions I & III have separate utility such as receiving image for crediting available fund from other institutions is different from receiving a reference location of image storing in server or storing disks. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

The examiner has required restriction between subcombinations usable together. Where applicant elects a subcombination and claims thereto are subsequently found allowable, any claim(s) depending from or otherwise requiring all the limitations of the allowable subcombination will be examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. See MPEP § 821.04(a). Applicant is advised that if any claim presented in a continuation or divisional application is anticipated by, or includes all the limitations of a claim that is allowable in the present application, such claim may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application.

4. Inventions II and III are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of using together and they have different designs, modes of operation, and effects (MPEP § 802.01 and § 806.06). In the instant case, invention II generates and transmits the image like any computer system can do, but the invention III has different function to receive a reference location point independently like other intranet network system.

5. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art due to their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purpose as indicated is proper.

6. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.
